

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is our utmost duty and desire to express acknowledgement to the various torchbearers, who have rendered valuable guidance during the preparation of our project.

First of all, we extend our deepest gratitude to our revered Principal Dr. M. S. Ali without whose support our idea could not have been transmuted into this live project.

We are grateful to Prof. A.V.Mohod HOD, Electrical and Electronics Engineering Department and guide Prof Name of Your Guide for providing immense support and guidance. We are grateful to him for guiding us at every step in the project. He has most honestly guided us throughout the work and never left our queries unanswered. It was his constant persuasion, encouragement, inspiration and able guidance that helped us in completing our project successfully.

Finally we sincerely thank the Non-Teaching Staff of our department and all those who have helped us in the endeavor of completing the project. We would also like to thank our entire fellow batch mates who really helped us directly and indirectly whenever we were in need.

Lastly our deepest thanks to our parents who, though were not physically with us, have continuously encouraged us for fulfilling a part of our goal successfully.
